

Professional Development Plan (PDP) and District Mentoring Plan

" A highly qualified teacher is at the center of the education reform movement. Setting high standards for what our student population needs to know and be able to do when they complete their education, adopting measures to ascertain that students are reaching those standards, and engagement of the public in the interest and support of all students' progress through public accountability, have provided the terrain of education reform. The improvement of teaching and learning depends on a knowledgeable and effective teacher in every classroom."

District Demographic Information

The DCSD is located in north central New York State. In the 1980s, the District annexed the former Stratford Central School District, which was contiguous to the DCSD, creating a large, high-needs rural district of 186 square miles, the boundaries of which lie in two counties (Herkimer, Fulton), one village (Dolgeville), and five townships (Stratford, Salisbury Center, Manheim, Little Falls, and Ephratah). As of June, 2016, the estimated enrollment was 902 students, grades K-12. In addition, in the fall of 2016 the district will have 90 children in its three three- and four-year-old preschool classes. The 2015-2016 Free/Reduced lunch rate was 61%, the overall attendance rate of students was 95%, and the high school completion rate was 89%. 100% of teachers in the DCSD are highly qualified. 100% of classrooms have SmartBoard technologies and the entire District has wireless internet access. Dolgeville Elementary School will be on a Local Assistance Plan for the 2016-2017 school year. The Middle School and James A. Green High School are in good standing.

District Vision

The vision of the District stems from a speech made at the dedication of the first public school in Dolgeville. The speech was delivered by industrialist Alfred Dolge, President of the School Society. The timeless vision is simply, "Sending Students into the World Well-Prepared."

Statement of Purpose for the Professional Development Plan and Mentoring Plan

It is the intent of Dolgeville Central School District (DCSD) to foster ongoing professional growth and development, reflection, and refinement of professional practice for all of its faculty and staff in order to improve teaching and learning. This plan is a framework for a cycle of continuous improvement and efficacy for all faculty and staff.

Legal Requirements for Professional Development

Districts must develop Professional Development Plans that meet the requirements described in section 100.2 (dd) of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education for the State of New York. The purpose of the Plan shall be to “improve the quality of teaching and learning by ensuring that staff participates in substantial professional development opportunities that are aligned with the Common Core Learning Standards of New York State in order to remain current with their profession and meet the learning needs of their students.”

Public school districts “are required to have a Professional Development Plan which describes the efforts made to ensure that professional development is continuous and sustained, that the methods and approaches for delivering professional development have been shown to be effective, and the manner in which the school district will measure the impact of professional development on student achievement and teachers’ practices.”

The Plan “shall include a description of how it will provide all of its teachers, teaching assistants and long-term substitute teachers with substantial professional development opportunities directly related to student learning needs.”

Holders of a professional teaching certificate and Level III teaching assistant certificates are required to complete 100 hours of professional development in every five-year cycle (a minimum of 20 hours per year) of professional license/certificate renewal. All professional development hours for teachers with professional certificates and TAs with Level III certificates will be logged into My Learning Plan. Decisions regarding the content, delivery, and providers of such professional development are within the purview of the DCSD and are made within the context of the District’s APPR, PDP, and Mentoring plans. By New York State Education Law, mentoring hours may count as professional development hours.

Lastly, the district’s Professional Development Plan must contain the following required components:

- A Needs Assessment
- Goals and Objectives for Professional Development
- Activities for Professional Development
- Elements of the District’s Mentoring Program
- Evaluation Standards for Professional Development

District Needs Assessment

Dolgeville Central School District is a high-needs rural district. Its students demonstrate, through a wide array of data, both quantitative and qualitative, that they have substantial needs in the following areas: academic, cognitive, social-emotional, fine and gross motor control, speech and language, behavioral, mental health, physical health, dental health, and eye care. Therefore, the district needs to ensure that professional development is wide-ranging to meet the wide-ranging needs of students. See Appendix 1 for a listing of data sources.

District Requirements for Professional Development Hours

While it is New York State Education Law that those staff members holding professional teaching certificates or level III teaching assistant certificates participate in mandatory hours of professional development, the DCSD recognizes the importance of and need for professional development for all staff members, regardless of their certification status. Therefore, the District is committed to providing quality professional development opportunities, both in and out of the District, for all of its staff members.

District Goals and Objectives for Professional Development

Professional development in the Dolgeville Central School District will be consistent, pervasive, ongoing, and sustainable with the end goal being measurable improvements in attitudes, professional knowledge and understanding, and professional practices. Professional development shall be process oriented and cyclical, from needs assessment through implementation and evaluation.

In its commitment to providing quality professional development opportunities for its staff members, the District has adopted the following objectives:

- A vision and commitment to improve teaching and learning through:
 - Administrative support.
 - Communication of professional development initiatives with the whole school community.
 - Ownership of professional development initiatives by the whole school community.
- A plan for professional development initiatives and activities that is:
 - Research-driven.
 - Standards-based.
 - Developed in collaboration with stakeholders and participants.
 - Is fluid and incorporates additions/adaptations based on data, including reflections from participants.
- Delivery of professional development programs will be:
 - Sustained, intensive, and ongoing.
 - Standards- and research-based, including content-specific pedagogy.
 - Inquiry-based.
 - Focused on student work.
 - Job-embedded.
 - Facilitated and collegial, and will incorporate peer sharing/coaching.
 - Responsive to participants' reflections about delivery and results.
- Participants will practice knowledge/strategies/skills acquired through professional development activities by:
 - Incorporating new knowledge/strategies/skills into their instruction.
 - Allowing participants adequate time and duration for practice.
 - Through collaboration with other participants through team planning and teaching opportunities.
- Implementation of and reflection on knowledge/strategies/skills by
 - Practicing over a brief time period.
 - Reflecting individually on the impact of implementation on the behavior of teachers and students.
 - Encouraging an atmosphere of peer and collegial reflection.
 - Reflection of the impact on student work.
- Evaluation of the results of implementation of knowledge/strategies/skills by
 - Analyzing evidence of changes in classroom practices.
 - Analyzing feedback to presenters/planners for the purposes of refining and/or revising the professional development plan.
 - Analyzes the impact of professional development on student achievement.
 - Analyzing the impact of professional development on student achievement.

- Successive professional development plans and initiatives will be responsive to participant reflections, District data, and continued needs assessments.

Professional development in the Dolgeville Central School District will be consistent, pervasive, ongoing, and sustainable with the end goal being measurable improvements in attitudes, professional knowledge and understanding, and professional practices. Professional development shall be process oriented and cyclical, from needs assessment through implementation and evaluation, and shall be based on the New York State Professional Development Standards.

New York State Professional Development Standards

- Professional development design is based on data, is derived from the experience, expertise and needs of the recipients, reflects best practices in sustained job-embedded learning, and incorporates knowledge of how adults learn.
- Professional development expands all educators' content knowledge and the knowledge and skills necessary to provide developmentally appropriate instructional strategies and assess student progress.
- Professional development is research-based and provides educators with opportunities to analyze, apply, and engage in research.
- Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge, skill, and opportunity to collaborate to improve instruction and student achievement in a respectful and trusting environment.
- Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge and skill to meet the diverse needs of all students.
- Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge and skill to create safe, secure, supportive, and equitable learning environments for all students
- Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge, skills, and opportunity to engage and collaborate with parents, families, and other community members as active partners in children's education.
- Professional development uses disaggregated student data and other evidence of student learning to determine professional development learning needs and priorities, to monitor student progress, and to help sustain continuous professional growth.
- Professional development promotes technological literacy and facilitates the effective use of all appropriate technology.
- Professional development is evaluated using multiple sources of information to assess its effectiveness in improving professional practice and student learning.

DOLGEVILLE CENTRAL SCHOOL
Mentoring and Induction Plan Policies and Procedures
“One Key to a Successful Teaching Experience”
Revised Summer, 2016

Purpose

- Increase the comfort level and knowledge base of new teachers in the district
- Integrate new teachers into the learning community and provide sharing opportunities
- Provide support and practical help in the classroom (example: observations and team teaching)
- Ease the transition from teacher preparation to practice, thus increasing the retention of teachers in the school
- Increase the skills of new teachers, and in turn, improve student achievement in accordance with State Learning Standards

Mentor Qualifications

- Tenured teachers will be appointed by the administrative team. Non-tenured teachers only by approval of the committee and/or administrator.
- Currently employed full time in the district. An exception may be made if a retired teacher of the district is deemed most appropriate.
- Demonstrates outstanding teaching skills, creativity and mastery of the subject matter they teach.
- Good interpersonal relationship qualities.
- Exhibits leadership qualities and enthusiasm for teaching.
- Willingness to serve as a mentor.

Selection/Pairing of Mentors

- The Superintendent will determine appropriate pairings of mentors and mentees. The district mentor coordinator will be consulted for input.
- The building principal will oversee the process in each building
- Adjustments and changes can be made to the pairing by mutual consent. This change will be made by the building principal and/or the committee.
- Teachers in need of additional support may require extended mentoring time.
- Extended mentoring/induction time is available to all new teachers at the recommendation of the mentor and discretion of the building principals.
- List of mentors previously trained and identified as qualified.

Role of Mentors

- Regulatory Mandate - Role of mentor is to provide guidance and support to the new teacher.
- Desired Effect of Regulation – to ease the transition into the practice of teaching and enhance their skills to improve student achievement.
- The mentor will act to orient the new teacher to the school culture and instructional practices employed by the district.
- The mentor will serve as a non-evaluative support structure for the new teacher and will facilitate in, not supplant, the teacher’s performance of his/her duties.

Mentoring Activities

Regulatory Mandate – Teacher Mentoring Program may include specific types of mentoring activities, including but not limited to:

- inducting the new teacher to the school culture
- orienting the new teacher to the policies and procedures of the school and the district as a whole
- modeling instruction for the new teacher
- observing instruction and providing constructive feedback which will lead to improved instructional practices
- instructional planning with the new teacher
- peer coaching
- team teaching
- periodic meetings with Mentor Program Coordinator

Mentors should –

- share teaching and classroom management techniques
- facilitate interaction with colleagues
- assist new teachers with self-evaluation

Mentor Training

Regulatory Mandate – The Teacher Mentoring Program must also provide instruction to mentors which will assist them in fulfilling their duties. Those activities include, but are not limited to:

- the role and responsibilities of a mentor
- time management methodology
- knowledge and understanding of mentoring activities
- knowledge and understanding of Max Thompson (Learning-Focused Strategies) and Harry Wong (The First Days of School, New Teacher Induction, and video series). See appendix I for additional suggested readings.
- knowledge, understanding, and personal implementation of the Learning-Focused model

Note: Mentoring activities can be used to fulfill CTLE requirements for maintenance of professional certification.

Mentor Training Activities

Time Allotment for Mentoring

Regulatory Mandate – The Teacher Mentoring Program must allocate an undefined period of time to the program, including but not limited to:

- scheduling common planning sessions (if possible)
- releasing the mentor and new teacher from a portion of their instructional and/or non-instructional activities.
- providing time for mentoring during Superintendent Conference days, before and after school days, and during summer orientation sessions.
- Mentors will receive a standard stipend of $500 per year.

*Release time is allowed for new teachers and assigned mentors to participate in activities such as classroom observations or attendance at workshops. The Mentor and New Teacher will be granted one day of release time per quarter for instructional planning, Etc. The Mentor and New Teacher will be granted two days each for observation of instructional practices (time to be determined by the Mentor and New Teacher).

*Teachers requiring substitute teaching coverage will follow standard district procedures for securing a substitute teacher.

Other Requirements

Prohibited Use of Information Obtained by Mentor through Program

Regulatory Mandate – A school district is prohibited from using information obtained by a mentor through his/her interaction with a new teacher for evaluation or discipline of that teacher unless:

1. withholding such information poses a danger to the life, health or safety of an individual, including students and staff
2. the information indicates that the new teacher has been convicted of a crime or has committed an act which falls into question the teacher's moral character, or
3. the school district has entered into a collective bargaining agreement that provides that the information obtained by the mentor through interaction with the new teacher while engaged in the mentoring activities of the program may be used for evaluating or disciplining the new teacher.

*New previously tenured teachers or experienced teachers coming into the district will work with the Mentor Program Coordinator to design an individualized mentor program plan tailored to meet their specific needs.

* Long term substitutes (more than 40 consecutive days) and mid-year replacements will need to be mentored through an individualized mentor plan.

*Mentors of long-term substitutes or mid-year replacements will be compensated at a rate of $50 per month.

Maintenance of Records Documenting Program Implementation

Regulatory Mandate – A school district is required to maintain documentation of the implementation of the mentoring program.

- Use of Mentor/Teacher Program Log Sheet
- Mentor Program Coordinator will keep all documentation on file for seven (7) years post end of mentoring program

Mentoring/Induction Program Structure

A. Components of the Program

- One year program. Year 2 is optional with an Individualized Plan.
- August orientation and bus trip within the school district followed with lunch and meeting with available school staff (Administration, Psychologist, Social worker, Business Office Staff, DCS Teachers' Association president, Transportation Coordinator, Heads of Building and Grounds, Cafeteria Manager)
- Information on building/district policies and procedures
- Training on special education documents (IEPs, 504 plans), referral to Child Study teams, and the legal issues specific to working with special education students.
- Listing of community events, businesses and restaurants
