Director of Athletics Report – June 18, 2019 Board Meeting

A. Update on Sports:

B. Facilities:

- Looking down the road, you will need new softball dugouts and new wall mats for the gymnasiums.
- Greener World still has not been able to complete their work of building up the baseball infield, which will help with the drainage. Greener World still needs to finish their work from the fall, conditioning and seeding all the fields.
- The softball field will also need to have material brought in to raise up infield. The softball field is having the same problems the baseball field is having. The outer edge of the infield is lower than the outfield grass so the water has nowhere to drain.

C. Additional Notes:

- The John Wallace Basketball camp will be held the week of July 22nd.
- Tricot plans to give another donation to paint the school logo in gym 1 and refinish both gymnasium floors the week of July 29th.
- Our league (Center State Conference) will switch over from RSchool to Schedule Galaxy starting in July. Parents will still be able to check schedules and get notifications of cancellations or changes.
- In your BOE packet, you should find my recommendations for coaching positions for next year's fall and winter seasons.

Re: Transportation review items.

We are again in the position of having no available sub bus drivers on a daily basis. I have been driving almost every afternoon.

Bus 104 broke down with a coolant issue. The internal EGR cooler burn out. The parts are under warranty and the bus was towed to Rome for service.

Our summer runs start on July 8th.

- 1 bus for regional summer school in Frankfort-Schuyler
- 2 buses for special needs (Utica, Herkimer, & Johnstown-Gloversville)
- 2 buses for Village of Dolgeville (hire drivers directly)
- 1 bus for Town of Salisbury (hire driver directly)

The transportation staff would like to thank the board of education for their continuing support in providing safe transportation for our students.

RE: Building and Grounds Report
DATE: June 13, 2019

This month we had numerous sporting events on the weekends, playing catch up for all the rain outs.

Aging infrastructure items are keeping us busy. Seems like every couple of days we're rebuilding toilet flush mechanisms, sinks, and other wearable items. The rubber components are slowly giving up.

Mowing has been a full time job with the rain happening every other day. We usually utilize our big mower but with all the water, we had to use just the small ones most of the time and even these have become stuck a few times. We made a major repair on the zero turn mower to the mower's clutch. The old clutch bracket wore out so we fabricated a new bracket, which works very well.

We did a lot of work on the baseball field, which Greener World was supposed to do. We hand spread about 10 to 15 ton of the new infield in an attempt to fill in the holes and make the field playable. We have tried multiple times to get Greener World here but because of the fields' wetness, it has been extremely difficult. Because of the weight of the top dressing machine, they can't go onto the fields until we get at least 2 dry days. Hopefully, we will get some dry days soon.

We ran electrical circuits for one new phone switch. This was supposed to be part of the emergency power project but since the switch arrived and the project hasn't happened, we had to provide service to power it up. Along with the power, we also put in wire chases for the phone lines to be fed to the switches.

We made another repair to one of the ride-on floor machines - a leveling arm for the brush deck wore out so we replaced it.

We have finally completed the total switch over to one type of cleaning product system for all the buildings. Much like the paper products and soap units, we have streamlined everything to one type - meaning we will not have to purchase multiple items for our inventory.

After a number of meetings with national grid on rebates for the boilers, they won't be able to do anything until an engineering firm does a complete assessment of the steam system and gives recommendations on all aspects of the swap out. This will likely happen during the next project when all the major infrastructure issues will be addressed. The rest of the rebates should be coming in hopefully in the near future for the bus garage and small boiler.
